Our Goal Is to give you a video of your precious wedding that you will want to watch... over & over again. A video that you will be proud to show friends, family and... future generations.

At Tamarack Wedding Videos we really care about you & your special day. We strive to deliver to you a highly creative, technically correct, professional video of your wedding event that you will be proud to share with family & friends. We want to help you build & archive you new family history so that your future generations can understand "where they came from".

A video of your wedding day is but one of the building blocks of family history that we document. We also film birth videos, family reunions, school plays & school sports.

We film from the heart, for the future.

Why choose Tamarack? It's simple. We Care. We Listen. We Deliver.

"Filming From the Heart... For Your Future"

Sept 2011

About "Us"

At Tamarack Wedding Videos, Rebecca & Roy are historians, storytellers and film makers. They are passionate about documenting your family history. Roy's dad spent untold hours & years behind an 8mm home movie camera capturing every little detail of Roy's childhood life. Roy cherishes those films now more than any other treasure that his dad left for him. Your family will treasure your video memories as well.

At Tamarack Wedding Videos we really care about you & your special day. We strive to capture your wedding day story told in a highly creative, technically correct, professional manner... a video that you will be proud to share with family & friends. We want to help you build & archive your new family history so that your future generations can understand "where they came from".

Go to our website to see our seasonal specials and all of the exciting add on options for your wedding videos such as "Love Story", "Highlight Video", "Photo Montage", "Coming Soon Trailer" and more.
